Second District—D. C. VAN BUNT.
Third District—JOSEPH HARRIS.
Fourth District—JOHN RUGER.

The democrats are becoming impressed with the fact that it won't do to monkey with the tariff.

New York will be as easy to carry by the republicans as Ohio, and in some respects a little easier.

Matters are a little dubious for the democrats, but as the party never had anything else but dubious prospects, they seem to get along with it very well

Mr. Cleveland will be busy at his desk in Albany after March next. The election will not disturb him in his present position.

Tobacco would be worth 20 cents a pound had congress amended the present tariff law on tobacco, as petitioned by 2,000 tobacco growers in Wisconsin.

Mr. Schurz did really think he carried the German vote in his pocket; but when he got to Ohio and began to feel about his pockets, lo, it was all the fancy of an egotist.

When Carter Harrison located 94 of the 165 polling places of Chicago in saloons and dens of infamy, and selected bar tenders and notorious customers for judges, he didn't intend that law should prevail.

The policy of the republican party is to put the workingman in the way of earning good wages. The policy of the democratic party is to make it impossible for the workingman to earn good wages.

The national republican committee has issued an address which sounds the clarion note of victory. It marshals the triumphs in Vermont, Maine and Ohio and the reduction of the democratic majority in West Virginia from 11,000 to 3000, and presages from these showings a sweeping republican victory in November and the largest popular majority for Blaine and Logan ever given to any candidate.

The republican state central committee has assigned Ogden H. Fethers to the following places:

Darlington, Thursday, October 23.
Hanover, Wednesday, October 29.
Elkhorn, Friday, October 31.
Edgerton, Saturday, November 1.
Clinton, Monday, November 3.

Mr. Fethers has received over one hundred invitations to speak in prominent places in the state, but his pressing professional business compels him to decline all except those given above.

"Gath" gives many nuts for the democrats to crack, and here is one of them: "I am asked occasionally on what the sanguine democrats base their hopes of Cleveland carrying this state. I have asked a great many of them to explain the faith that is in them, and when I get an answer at all it is the same from each. They say that Cleveland got 192,000 majority only two years ago. I reply now that the democrats had 12,000 only a year ago in Ohio, and are beaten 12,000 or more this year. On the same principle Cleveland ought to fall off 200,000."

In forecasting the presidential election, the best political observers on the side of the republican party, gives the following states to Blaine:

California	8	Nevada	3
Colorado	3	New Hampshire	4
Connecticut	6	New York	36
Illinois	22	Ohio	23
Indiana	15	Oregon	3
Iowa	13	Pennsylvania	30
Kansas	5	Rhode Island	4
Maine	6	Vermont	5
Massachusetts	14	Wisconsin	11
Michigan	13
Minnesota	7		239
Nebraska	3

Many calculate on New Jersey, and there is a strong chance for it to go republican. A change of only 1,000 votes compared with four years ago, will give the state to Blaine and Logan.

As thoroughly as a German likes his beer, the New York and Ohio German likes fair wages better. That is the reason why Ohio went republican, and why the Germans in New York city are seriously considering the question of tariff in relation to their wages and their homes. Guth tells us that there are now employed in the manufactories of New York, city, as he has ascertained by statistics more persons than are now engaged in all the British commerce on the globe, and most of these are Germans, and most of them will vote for Blaine because bread and home is the greatest question now before the people.

The other day when the Methodist centennial exercises were being held at Troy, New York, the temperance question came up for discussion, and the Rev. Mr. Hurlshorn said: "I stand here, Mr. Chairman, to denounce St. John's candidacy as both stupid and vicious. His ministerial champions desecrate the sacred pulpit upon the Sabbath day by harangues for St. John. * * * One step in the wrong direction leads to another. Hence we hear men and women of education and ability ridicule the tariff issue in the present campaign and indirectly declare for a party and a policy that will lodge the Nation's wealth in Europe as fast as the earth yields it; that will leave our noble working people idle and starving in our streets; that will surely bring to us the anarchy, riot and bloodshed ever attendant upon idleness and starvation."

THE COLLEGES FOR BLAINE.

A short time ago the College World sent a number of questions to the faculty and the students of fifty representative colleges and universities throughout the United States relative to their preferences for president.

To the question, "Are you a republican?" 1,789 answered in the affirmative and 881 in the negative. To the question, "If entitled to vote, would you vote for Mr. Blaine?" there were 2,756 affirmative answers, and when asked if they would vote for Cleveland, the number was 952. Twelve hundred and eighty-five voted that Cleveland was an immoral man and therefore not fit for president, and 497 voted that Blaine was dishonest in his railway bond speculations.

Of the faculty, 213 decided decided to vote for Blaine and 43 for Cleveland. Out of the 3,000 students, 196 were found who would vote for St. John. Nearly all the faculty in the colleges north, are Blaine men, while in the south, where a free ballot and a fair count is not permitted, the students and the faculty are almost unanimous for Cleveland and Hendricks. For instance the vote in Beloit college was 38 to 2 in favor of Blaine, and the Boston school of technology, 275 for Blaine to 63 for Cleveland: but in the South-wesetrn college, where a solid south is a creed of the people, there were 122 for Cleveland and only 2 for Blaine. In the religious institutions the vote was almost solid for Blaine.

MR. SCHURZ, HIS COST AND SERVICES.

The Gazette has frequently said that the republican party should feel particularly thankful for the valuable services Mr. Carl Schurz has rendered the republicans in this campaign, especially when the democratic national committee has been kind enough to foot all the expense. It doesn't seem hardly fair for the democrats to pay for republican powder, but it was their own proposition, and if the democrats are satisfied, the republicans will try to be.

The first kind office Mr. Schurz did for the republicans this fall was to stump Ohio. In that state he made 22 speeches—some in German and some in English—and below will be found the places and and the number of times he spoke and the republican gains over last year in the towns and cities where the speeches were delivered:

	Rep. gain over last year.
3 times in Cincinnati	5,000
3 times in Cleveland	2,200
2 times in Toledo	2,000
2 times in Youngstown	950
2 times in Dayton	1,700
1 time in Columbus	400
1 time in Canton	300
1 time in Zanesville	50
1 time in Sandusky City	750
1 time in Akron	700
1 time in Warren (county)	700
1 time in Lorain (county)	800
1 time in Springfield	500
1 time in Athens (county)	400
1 time in Steubinville	200

The total republican gains in the places were 17,980, which is really a better showing than John Sherman can make. So these 22 speeches cost the democratic $3,300 in money and 17,980 votes—a very splendid contribution to republican success.

But while the republican party has been the gainer this fall by Carl Schurz's opposition, the country at large has been the loser by his public services. Some time ago, the New York Times, before, however, it supposed it would be compelled to work in the same harness with Schurz for Cleveland's election, summed up what Mr. Schurz has cost the country, and we give the figures correctly:

Received as minister to Spain	$11,775 34
Received as Brigadier General, eleven months at $300 per month (approximate)	3,300 00
Received as Major General, twenty-six months at $15 per month (approximate)	12,350 00
Received as special agent, condition of the south	1,705 00
Received as Senator, pay and mileage, 6 years	32,000 00
Received as Secretary of the Interior, four years	32,000 00
Grand total since 1861	$93,131 34

Now all the country gets for this is $93,131.34, is the proposition from Schurz to turn over the government to the democratic party for plunder and spoils. So the account stands thus:

Schurz got from the country	$93,131 34
The country got from Schurz	17,980 00

BURNING OF CARTHAGE.

Description of the Fire and How It Was Finally Stayed.

The Loss Estimated at from $500,000 to $800,000—Seventy Acres Burned—A Ruined People Want Help.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The fire which raged at Carthage Monday was terrible. It began at 11:30 a. m., in a sash and blind factory in West Carthage, which is separated from the village proper by the Black river, which at this point is over a quarter of a mile wide. The fire spread southward, taking in Harvey Farrer & Son's butter-tub factory. Then it attacked Meyer, Ross & Co.'s extensive furniture factory, and then some great piles of hemlock bark which hemmed in Buck & Revell's tannery. There was a brisk breeze from the southwest, and many burning embers were blown for a long distance. Some of them lodged in Stephen Gibbs' shingle-mill on the Carthage shore. The mill was full of inflammable material. The flames then spread rapidly to Guyott's grist-mill, saw-mill, and carding-mill. This was only twenty minutes after the fire was first discovered. When the Watertown firemen arrived, the fire had attacked the large Carthage iron-works, Rutter's saw and grist mills, and Rybler & Pringle's large shops and foundries. The flames had also leaped across the railroad track and were eating their way into the very heart of the village. Dwelling after dwelling was soon in a blaze, and it seemed as though nothing could stay the progress of the fire. Steamers arrived from Boonville and Lowville, but were of no assistance, as the efforts to put the fire out were not under competent direction. The only water for the protection of the interior was in small cisterns that had been pumped full by the fire-engines from the river. These soon gave out, and for over an hour the engines stood silent while the fire attended strictly to business. The buildings, whether of wood, brick, or iron, fell before the flames. Churches and school-houses went like tinder. The wind suddenly veered to the northwest, and it seemed as though there was no hope for the whole village. The new opera house was destroyed in five minutes, so intense was the heat. The roofs for a quarter of a mile were covered with men equipped with pails of water. The roofs would suddenly burst into flames under their feet, and they were obliged to fly for their lives. Great clouds of burning leaves filled the air, driving all before it. Men, women, and children filled the streets, carrying what little they had been able to save in their flight. Many household goods were taken to vacant lots and deposited in places of supposed security, only to be burned a few minutes after they had been left. Every horse and vehicle in town was pressed into the service of carrying away the goods that were saved. Nearly every family in the village removed what goods they could from their houses, and some took them miles into the country.

At 2:30 p. m. the village authorities resolved to put the fire department under the control of Chief W. H. Cole, of the Watertown department. Cole proved to be the right man in the right place, and in twenty minutes he had four powerful streams playing on the fire by placing steamers at the river, and thus feeding other engines further up town. At this time the fire had crept in from the northward and was burning directly in the rear of the finest business blocks in State street, the principal streets of the town. It had also crossed State street further east and began to eat its way down West street, the street south and parallel to State, threatening to flank the firemen on that side. The men stood their ground bravely, and, in the midst of terrific heat and smoke, finally stopped the progress of the flames on West street, and turned them back from State street on the north, not however, until two blocks of fine residences and the Baptist church on the north side of State street and several elegant residences on the south side of the same street had been consumed. Another detachment of firemen meanwhile had been fighting the fire on its northern limits, thus allowing it to burn itself out in a direct line eastward. The burned district is half a mile long and a quarter of a mile wide, covering over seventy acres of ground. Besides the damage done in West Carthage, in all 220 buildings of every description were destroyed, including twenty shops, stores, manufactories, etc., the Baptist, Episcopal and Presbyterian churches, Church of the Disciples, two large school-houses, opera house, town hall, engine-house, the parsonages of all the burned churches, Peck's hotel, and 100 dwellings and tenement-houses, thus rendering 122 families homeless, many of them without a place to lay their heads. As night came on the confusion grew worse. Families were separated, and the few household goods they had saved were scattered. Many spent the entire night in collecting what little property they had left. Others sought refuge in neighboring barns, stores and shops. Those whose houses were saved freely opened their doors and made beds on floors, while others remained in the open fields guarding their effects.

The president of the village issued a proclamation requesting all places where liquor was sold to close their doors. This order was very generally complied with and consequently there was but little drunkenness and no attempts at robbery. The firemen remained the greater part of the night playing on the ruins. The loss will aggregate $800,000 or over. The insurance will reach about $20,000. The majority of the families were working people and all they had consisted of their homes built and paid for, and for the most part uninsured. They are all penniless. Most of them saved nothing but the clothing on their backs. Efforts are now making throughout the county to raise money for the relief of the sufferers. The sum of $2,000 has been subscribed in this city, and a large meeting was held at night, at which money poured in. The trustees of Carthage have issued a proclamation setting forth the need of financial assistance at once. A bureau of charity has been formed there, with C. A. Horr as chairman.

An Appeal for Help.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—L. G. Chase, the editor of The Carthage Republican, telegraphs to the press of this city a harrowing description of the devastation in that town. He says that hundreds of people are houseless, homeless and destitute, that the accumulations of years of hard labor and economy are wholly swept away, and the once beautiful village is now a heap of smoldering ruins. Clothing, provisions and money for the assistance of the destitute and needy would be thankfully received, and if sent to the board of trustees, will be judiciously distributed.

President James C. Fargo, of the American Express company, said that contributions addressed to the board of trustees at Carthage, where the company has an agency, would be received at any of the company's offices and forwarded free of charge.

INSURANCE LOSSES.

A dispatch from Watertown says that the insurance losses at Carthage so far as ascertained are: North British & Mercantile, $7,800; Insurance Company of North America, $1,800; Liverpool, London & Globe, $20,000; Continental, $28,450; West Chester, $10,525; Royal, $10,250; Fire Assurance of Philadelphia, $5,300; Hanover, $40,000; Hartford, $13,457; London & Lancashire, $9,175; Franklin, Pa., $3,037; Imperial, $1,000; Sun, $2,600; Niagara, $20,000, and Bowery, $1,500.

FOUR ROUNDS AND A DRAW.

Charley Mitchell and Jack Burke Put on the Gloves.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Jack Burke and Charley Mitchell fought four rounds, Queensberry rules, Tuesday night, at Germania hall. They had previously met in Buildingham, England, with bare knuckles, and the encounter then was declared a draw. Burke was attended by Patsey Sheppard and Billy Edwards. Billy Madden and Jim Campbell seconded Mitchell.

Round 1—Burke led off, but was short, and Mitchell countered him sharply on the face. Burke let go, both hands reaching the chin and mouth, and received a stinger on the nose. They then became very busy at short range, and the bout closed about even.

Round 2—Burke landed full in the mouth, Mitchell countering heavily on the nose. Burke then made a few taps on Mitchell's nose, which that gentleman countered by hitting Burke a rattler on the jaw, following it up by a drive in the nose. Burke, however, caused Mitchell's lips to swell badly, and the round closed in Burke's favor.

Round 3—As soon as the men toed the mark Burke led for the nose, while Mitchell made play at the chest. Burke's long shots at the face told and one of his left-handers caught Mitchell in the eye, cutting it, and drawing blood. Billy Edwards claimed "first blood," and it was allowed. The sight of the blood made Mitchell change his tactics and he went for Burke's face, giving him some hard blows. Burke, in trying to counter, fell.

Round 4—Both men came up strong. Both made play at the mouth and face, but were light, Mitchell's blows probably being the hardest. Burke made two excellent counts at the mouth, while Mitchell swung his right on the ear. Burke then delivered some running hits, but Mitchell met him every time, and from this out it was hit for hit, neither having any advantage.

The referee decided the contest a draw, which it was agreed by all present was a just decision.

A Flurry in Oil.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Business on the two petroleum exchanges in this city Tuesday opened amidst excitement. The transactions were large and numerous, and it was soon evident that the rapid advance in quotations which set in Monday was likely to cripple a large number of speculators who were on the bear side of the market. The first morning quotation for United Pipe line certificates was 70 cents per barrel, and the changes during the forenoon were as follows: 69¾@70¾@70¾@70¾ cents. The latter price was about 10 cents higher than the lowest price of Monday. Shortly before noon it was announced on the National ex change that C. O. Prosby was unable to meet his engegements on 87,000 barrels of oil. Soon, afterward the further announcements were made that Messrs. J. S. Sutterling and H. L. Underwood had failed. The two latter failures were for comparatively small amounts. Mr. Underwood is understood to be making arrangements to fulfill his contracts. News from Pittsburg was to the effect that several failures had occurred and the price of oil closed at 71¾. There was great excitement at all the oil exchanges. The prices here closed at 71c.

More British Bulldozing.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—While Lord Salisbury was speaking at Dumfries Tuesday night a mob dispersed the audience and stoned the distinguished speaker, who was obliged to hastily retire. He entered his carriage, and was literally chased to the hotel by the howling crowd. In a short time the hotel was completely surrounded by the mob, who smashed every window in the building. The police were utterly unable to preserve order. At a late hour, the crowd having dispersed, Lord Salisbury took a train for London.

Stopping a Bad Practice.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct 22.—Postmaster General Hatton has issued an order to all postoffice inspectors, forbidding them from borrowing money or receiving advances on their pay from postmasters, and stating that to do so will be considered sufficient cause for dismissal from the service. The growth of this practice has interfered with the discharge of the duties of inspectors, who are appointed to investigate the affairs of postmasters.

Stanley on the Congo Trade.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Mr. Henry M. Stanley delivered an address to the Manchester chamber of commerce upon the subject of England's future trade with the Congo region. He predicted that with proper facilities a vast commerce would spring up, and that the item of exports of cotton cloth alone would amount to $100,000,000 annually. He urged that England support the International Congo association.

Two People Reported Cremated.

ST. IGNACE, Mich., Oct. 22.—Reports have reached here of a fearful fire at Grand Marais, Lake Superior, which destroyed a hotel and caused the loss of two lives. Some of the reports say a man and wife were murdered, and that the murderer is in jail, but owing to the distance and imperfect means of communication, nothing definite has been learned as yet.

Cyclone in Michigan.

COLDWATER, Mich., Oct. 22.—A cyclone struck Coldwater about 6:10 Tuesday evening, accompanied by rain. The roof of a business block was torn off, plate-glass fronts were blown in, and signs were carried the entire length of Main street. Telegraph lines were blown down, and much excitement prevailed. It is expected that much damage has been done in the city and county.

An Illinois Lady's Generosity.

QUEBEC, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Maitland, of Nouvelle Glancoe, Ills., has sent to the archbishop of Quebec a check for $500 to be distributed among the poor of Labrador. This generous gift will be utilized at once for buying provisions, which will be sent by schooners to the people in distress.

Phallas and Jay-Eye-See.

RACINE, Wis., Oct. 22.—Mr. Case's horses, Jay-Eye-See and Phallas left on Tuesday for Lexington, Ky., where they will remain during the winter. The horses are in excellent condition.

Appointed.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 22.—The president has appointed William P. Danwoody, of Iowa, to be a member of the national board of health, vice Dr. H. A. Johnson, resigned.

The Belgian Cabinet Resigns.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 22.—Owing to the recent Liberal success the ministers have placed their resignations in the hands of Prime Minister Malon, who will form a new cabinet.

The Apology Accepted.

[Atlanta Constitution.]

Fitzgoober got a little too much lodge on board a few nights since and started home in a waltz style of stepping. The night was extremely dark; and just before reaching his residence he beheld a dark form standing on the sidewalk. Fitzgoober stopped still and took deliberate aim, determined to pass by the stranger. But to his dismay he ran directly against the object and fell on his hands and knees. Fitzgoober attempted to arise, but before he could get up something struck him in the slack of the pants and lifted him over an adjoining fence. Slowly lifting his eyes he murmured: "Your polity tirely satisfactory," while Pellet's old billy goat walked off, seemingly content.

Anecdote of Milo.

[Life.]

Milo, the wrestler, a Grecian of gigantic strength, being desirous of giving proof of his powers, undertook to rive in twain the stump of a gnarled oak, but his hands being taken in the rift he perished miserably of hunger and thirst. This anecdote teaches us the extreme folly of taking the stump when it is not absolutely sure how things are going to come out.

AT
M. C. Smith's New York Cash Store,
For the Fall Trade of Ladies' Garments.
consisting of
Dolmans, Sacks, Paletots, New Markets, Russian Circulars,
Etc. We have these garments in Seal Plush, Plain and Brocaded Silk, and Plaid and Diagonal Bavcers.
To sum up the matter in a few words, we shall open on Tuesday, September 2d, 1884, the largest and best assortment of ladies fine garments ever shown in the interior of the state. We gave very large orders July 1st, to three different manufacturers of these goods, in order to have our goods made in the dull season of the year, when good help could be obtained to make garments, consequently our garments are much better made than garments are that are made late in the season when everybody is in a hurry, and manufacturers have to take any work they can get. Our garments are all tailor made, far superior to any that will be found at any other house in the city. It is a well known fact that we have taken the entire lead in the sale of ladies fine garments for the past two years, particularly Fine Seal Plush Sacques, Dolmans and Circulars, running in price from $25 to $75. In these goods we defy all competition.
We propose this year to beat any of our former efforts. We have the goods now ready for sale. Parties intending to buy garments this season the sooner they buy them the better the assortment will be to select from. We have now on hand a full assortment of sizes. Last season we had a good deal of trouble in getting sizes late in the season, and had to wait a long time to get them, and the garments were not so well made at that time of year, as they had to be rushed through.
We defy any house in Janesville to show as fine a stock of Seal Plush and Brocade Silk garments as we have at the present time.
We have just received three tons at one shipment of garments. We are told that we can never sell the amount of garments we have just received. We know we can for these garments will sell themselves. All we have to do is to show them.
Ladies desiring fine garments are respectfully requested to call early before the sizes are broken. Also a large stock of misses' and children's garments just received, very cheap. M. C. SMITH.

SEQUEL OF A MURDER.

An Alabama Mob Varies the Proceedings Slightly,

And Adds a Novel Feature to Proceedings A La Judge Lynch—Two Hung, One a Woman.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 22.—Centre, Ala., thirty-six miles from this place, is in a state of intense excitement over a double lynching. Mrs. Mary Davis was one of the best known women in Cherokee county. Some time ago her husband had a quarrel with J. R. Dorsey, her uncle, the postmaster at Alpine, Ga. The night of Oct. 6 Dorsey and a prostitute named Jane Ward were at Alpine drinking. That evening Davis was called away from home, and a gentleman named C. C. Jones was spending the evening at his house as a guest. Dorsey was seen coming near the house, and Mr. Davis before going away locked the doors and barred the windows to keep him out. Some time afterwards Mrs. Davis came to the door and looked out, and almost at that instant a gun was fired, and she fell a corpse across her own threshold, her body perforated with slugs. Mr. Jones ran to the door to render assistance, the gun was again fired, and he fell in his tracks, bleeding from several wounds, of which he died the next day. Mr. Davis returned home soon afterward. Search was at once begun for Dorsey and Jane Ward, who were arrested and put in jail at Centre. Monday night about midnight forty masked men visited the jail and peremptorily demanded the keys from the jailor. The jailor delivered the keys to the leader, and Dorsey and Jane Ward were taken a quarter of a mile from the jail, and by the same rope both were hanged from the limb of an oak tree. The bodies remained hanging until noon Tuesday.

Hung on Suspicion.

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 22.—Monday night while a posse was conveying Charles McLane from this city to Bellevue jail it was overpowered when six miles from this city by armed and masked men, who took the prisoner and hanged him to a tree. McLane was suspected of having fired the gin-house on the Foster plantation. The action of the mob is generally condemned.

DISINHERITED FOR DISSIPATION.

Destitute Condition of a Young Man Who Loves His Bottle.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—For his dissipation William Barre Jr., son of ex-Register William Barre, of Brooklyn, was some years ago disowned by his father. He, his wife, and several children have been living in rooms at Atlantic and Clermont avenues, Brooklyn, but last Friday they were dispossessed for nonpayment of rent and turned into the street. Barre was absolutely without resources. They had no place to go, and Mrs. Mary Van Keuren, the wife of a driver for the Adams Express company, who lives at 275 Atlantic avenue, took pity on their condition and offered for the time being to let them share her rather limited apartments. Barre accepted the offer with many expressions of gratitude, and, it is alleged, repaid Mrs. Van Keuren by stealing a quantity of her clothing. Barre was arraigned before Justice Walsh, and with him his wife, who was committed as a vagrant. Barre's father, who is independently rich, will have nothing to do with him, and has long since refused to recognize him.

Chicago Fat Stock Show.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The Illinois state board of agriculture committee on arrangements for the fat stock show met Tuesday afternoon at the Sherman house. President Landrigan and Messrs. Gillham, Reynolds, Pullen, Dysart, Vittum, Funk, Virgin and Pearce were present. A committee of three, Messrs. Reynolds, Virgin, Gillham and Pearce, were appointed to contract for stalls in the Exposition building. A special premium, donated by the Bell City Manufacturing company, Racine, Wis., was accepted, and it will be given as a special for sweepstakes for the best carcass in the show. The question of admitting sale cattle to the show was brought up for discussion. Mr. Dysart moved that all stall-room remaining after exhibition cattle were supplied be given to horses, after which the cattle for sale to be furnished with what remained. The president ruled that it was not in the province of the committee to take such action. Mr. Scott then moved that the committee be authorized to erect enough stalls for the show, and the remainder, if any, be divided between horses and cattle. This was carried. There were no further matters before the committee, and they adjourned to Nov. 1.

The Man Who Assaulted Cleveland.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Samuel Boone, who made the assault on Governor Cleveland Monday, was visited by a United Press reporter at the jail Tuesday. He is still quite nervous, and said the newspapers made too much of the matter. He hopes he will get off easily. He said he was a Democrat in former times, but had voted the temperance ticket of late years. He insisted on turning the conversation to the subject of his brother-in-law's case, and said that a pardon should have been granted, because the boy was a nice boy, and peculiar in his conduct, but did not mean any harm to any one. He says he will not be examined as to his sanity, for there are no insane persons in his family. His conversation is very incoherent, and his mind is evidently affected.

Change in the Irish Administration.

LONDON, Oct. 22. — Mr. George Otto Trevelyan has resigned the position of chief secretary of Ireland. Mr. Henry Campbell Bannerman, member of parliament for Stirling, has been appointed his successor. There is wild excitement among the Nationalists in Dublin over the change of administration. The new chief secretary has been secretary to the admiralty since 1882. Mr. Trevelyan has been appointed chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, succeeding the Rt. Hon. George J. Dodson in that position. Mr. Dodson has been elevated to the peerage.

A Bad Outlook for Rhodes.

GALVESTON, Tex., Oct. 22.—Tuesday evening Mary Mays, a beautiful octoroon, was shot and stabbed to death by her husband Bud Rhodes, a mulatto. Rhodes, attracted by her beauty, married the woman in April last, and thenceforth gave free rein to his morbidly jealous nature. Mary soon tired of his companionship, and when Rhodes in August dangerously knifed a supposed admirer of the woman and fled the city she welcomed his flight as a grateful relief. Returning Monday night, Rhodes sought Mary at the residence where she was employed, and calling her out shot her in the head, and, jumping on the body, drew a bowie-knife and was cutting her head off when Mary's mistress appeared, pistol in hand, and covered the butcher, but before the lady could discharge the weapon Rhodes snapped his pistol in her face, and fled. Intense excitement prevails among the negroes. The island is being scoured by many men. If Rhodes is captured by other than the officers he will be burned at the stake.

DON'T SAY A WORD!

The Omniscient "Special" Unearths a Great Social Secret,

And "Gives It Away" to the Public—President Arthur's Intentions Laid Bare—His Latest Deep-Laid Scheme.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The Tribune's New York special says: Ever since President Arthur's accession to the presidency rumors have sprung up that before the expiration of his term of office the White House would be graced by a mistress, and from time to time the names of several eligible ladies prominent in Washington and New York society have been mentioned, such as the one chosen to preside over the household and fill the social void which has existed for three years. When the president recently paid his visit to Secretary Frelinghuysen at Raritan and extended it beyond the limits originally fixed it was suddenly remembered that he had during last winter and spring been noticeably attentive to Miss Tillie Frelinghuysen, the secretary's eldest daughter, and to this was ascribed the prolongation of his visit. For once rumor told the truth, as the marriage of the president with Miss Frelinghuysen has been arranged and will take place at Washington during the month of January. At Newark, the home of the Frelinghuysens, the belief had been general for several months that the marriage was contemplated, but as the months have rolled on without the formal announcement, and as Miss Frelinghuysen was known to have been absent from Washington since early summer, having passed several weeks at Lenox, Mass., where she now is, society there is now slow to believe that the marriage has been arranged, and to-day none closely acquainted with the family of the bride admit the truth of the statement.

Among President Arthur's friends in the city the news came as a surprise. All of them heard the rumors, but all set them down as successors to those which have proved to be incorrect.

Miss Tillie is the eldest child of Secretary Frelinghuysen, and is about 30 years old. She is a tall and slender blonde, with clear-cut features and a shapely, low forehead, brown hair, gray eyes, and a somewhat pallid face, and although not what is called a handsome woman, has a stately and commanding presence. She is of very polished manners, exceedingly vivacious, an excellent conversationalist, and has rendered herself very popular in all circles at Washington, especially among the members and attaches of foreign legations, having among her other gifts, an excellent knowledge of most of the modern languages. She had great tact, and her savoir faire will be felt at the entertainments at the White House during the period of her reign there. She is also noted for her charities, both at Washington and Newark, N. J., her home, and no one in either city is more blessed by the poor than she. Her younger sister is Mrs. John Davis, wife of the assistant secretary of state, the remainder of Mr. Frelinghuysen's family consisting of Miss Lucy, Frederick, George Griswold, who is a lawyer of this city and married, and Theodore, who is engaged to Miss Alice Coates, the daughter of the great thread manufacturer.

President Arthur is 54 years old, and has been a widower for the last five years. His first wife was Miss Ellen Herndon, the daughter of Lieut. Herndon of the United States navy, who was lost at sea while in command of the passenger steamer Central America. Since his accession to the presidency his sister, Mrs. McElroy, of Albany, has taken charge of the White House so far as her time would permit, although for long periods the president's home lacked a mistress. His family consists of two children—Allan, aged 21, now a student at Princeton, and Nellie, aged 13, who has become a household word throughout the land.

Baltimore & Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroads.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company has filed an answer to the bill under which the Baltimore & Ohio railroad obtained an injunction restraining the former from interfering with the running of the Baltimore & Ohio cars over the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore railroad. The answer denies most of the assertions in the Baltimore & Ohio bill, and defends the action of the Pennsylvania in the premises. Upon filing the answer the Pennsylvania Railroad company entered an appeal to the court of appeals, and gave an appeal indemnity bond for $250,000. The appeal and bond dissolves the injunction.

Oil Tank Explosion.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—At 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the oil in one of the tanks of the storage warehouse of Crew, Levick & Co. exploded, throwing the burning fluid in all directions and setting fire to the oil in the other tanks. Frank Page, engineer, was entirely surrounded by fire. He rushed through the flames and was severely burned about the head and body. The roofs of thirteen dwellings on a small street in the rear caught fire, but were extinguished before any great amount of damage was sustained. The loss to the warehouse will reach $40,000. Insurance, $30,000.

The Man Who Dreamed of Murder.

CONNELSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 22.—The interest in the mysterious killing of Jacob Klink, and the mysterious dream of Rice Orbin, is unabated. The inquest developed no new points, except that a neighbor of Klink claimed to have seen him on Thursday evening at an hour when young Orbin was at home. The jury rendered a verdict of accidental death, thus declining to throw the responsibility on any one.

Illinois State Tax.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Oct. 22.—Following is the rate of state tax for Illinois for 1884: For general state purposes, 2 1-10 mills on each dollar, or 21 cents on each $100; for state school purposes, 1 4-10 mills on each dollar, of 14 cents on each $100—aggregating 3 5-10 mills on each dollar, or 35 cents on each $100 of the valuation of the taxable property. This rate is slightly in excess of the rate of last year levied for state taxes.

Insanity is on the increase. Statistics show this. Many cases are brought on by overwork, anxiety, excitement, mental trouble and nervous prostration; it is also inherited. Invariably sleeplessness and constipation manifest themselves before one becomes insane. Constipation induces dyspepsia, jaundice, bad breath, piles, pipples, low spirits, headache, etc. Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic relieves constipation, thereby curing these diseases. Price, 50 cents. BULWERLYTTON' SBRIDGE.

Where it Touches the Shores and the Great Columns in Mid-Stream.

"What a beautiful bridge between old age and childhood is religion. How intuitively the child begins with prayer and worship on entering life, and how intuitively on quitting life old man turns back to prayer and worship, putting himself again side by side with the infant," remarks Sir E. Bulwer Lytton, in his "Strange Story."

But, bar between its distant abutments the bridge of life has many high and awful arches through which the wild waters dash and roar in wrath and desolation. Prayer and worship alone do not sustain these. Nature's solid rocks must lie unshaken beneath, and human art and skill must rear and solidify the structure overhead. God's will is best exemplified in the laws He has made for the creatures whom He has placed under their control. Neither the child's trustful "Our Father" nor the old man's "Forget me not in the midst of mine infirmities," will alter this; by the weight of a single grain.

Science and art first—then faith and prayer—is the order of Heaven itself. Divinity heals through its agents, and those agents are the discoveries of man; not the vague announcements of prophets or seers. Is life a burden to you? Does time drag? Is your power to cope with life's problems and duties weakened? You are not well. Your blood is sluggish and tainted perhaps; or some important organ is torpid or overworked. This fact may have taken the form of dyspepsia, rheumatism, gout, malaria, pains, in the stomach, chronic headache, or any of a dozen other ills. PARKER'S TONIC will invigorate you, as fresh air invigorates those who have been shut up in damp, fetid cells. It is powerful, pure, delicious, scientific, safe—the keystone of the central arch of the bridge of life.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.

HORACE FAIRBROTHER."

Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup. It seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude?" Sincerely yours,

MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."

159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CHANEY."

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON."

Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

Emerald Grove.

—The annual meeting of the Emerald Grove branch of the Rock county bible society will be held in the Congregational church next Sabbath, October 26th, in the morning. Mr. J. M. Whitehead, of Janesville, will speak upon that occasion. The usual collection for the bible cause will be taken up.

—At a meeting of the two congregations after services on Sabbath morning last, a hearty and unanimous vote was taken to invite the Rock county Sabbath school association to meet at Emerald Grove, November 5th and 6th, Wednesday evening and Thursday. It was decided to hold the exercises in the Methodist church, and a committee of arrangements was appointed consisting of the two pastors, Revs. Beedle and Jackson, and the two superintendents, Messrs. Stoller and Cheney.

—Miss Carrie Luther, of Delavan, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Goodrich.

—Mrs. Norman Dinsmore, mother of Mrs. Aden Joiner, has been visiting with her daughter.

—Wm. Street, Esq., and Mr. N Smith will address the republicans of Emerald Grove, at the Congregational church, on Saturday evening, October 25th. Let the republicans turn out enmasse. Mr. Street will discuss the prohibition question from a republican standpoint.

—Rev. D. B. Jackson was severely "beeten" to the extent of three bushels by George Beesley.

—Mr. A. C. Munger, now of Janesville, made a short visit in the Grove on Sunday last.

—Hon. Geo. Beesley, gardner on the European plan, etc., wishes us to state that he has the two boss hogs 15 months old, weighing in the aggregate 1710 pounds. This would indicate that George's forte is not gardening as we always supposed.

—For good reasons the closing exercises of the day school will take place in the afternoon of October 31st, instead of the evening as at first intended. Parents are especially invited.

—W. D. Hastings purchased in Chicago a full stock of dry goods, etc., which are now being hauled from the depot and opened up. For a general assortment of goods at close prices and a square deal remember that Hastings is the place.

—Two newly made fathers, Messrs. E. Ranson, and R. Jones smile benignly and in reply to our congratulations say "yes, a boy."

Clinton.

CHINA-WEDDING.

Saturday evening, October 18, 1884, about one hundred of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lowe, surprised them at their home, corner of Church and Cross streets, carrying with them an abundance of the good things gastronomic and some fine presents, the most conspicuous being a decorated chamber set and a beautiful china tea set. These were presented to them in a few words, by Dr. Covert, as follows:—"Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, your friends and neighbors deemed it prudent and proper to come in upon you this evening without ceremony, and look a little into your private and domestic life. As it seems to be necessary in this age, once in three, five, ten, fifteen and twenty years to look after the married folks; we find nothing in particular against you but would require good promises for the future. Do you solemnly promise? If so, in behalf of this assemblage I tender to you these gifts as mementoes of our respect and esteem, with our well wishes for your future happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Lowe seemed dazed with surprised and could scarcely realize the situation or express their sentiments, but acknowledged that their feelings were great and that they were extremely thankful for the expression of good will.

—Monday evening, Oct. 20, '84, Clinton's "brave sons and fair daughters" assembled in goodly numbers at Union Hall to hear good, honest, republican doctrine dispensed by such able speakers as Col. Nick Smith, of Janesville and Judge Geo. Graham, of Oshkosh. The former in a brief but telling manner reviewed the records of the two parties and the merits of the two presidential nominees and showed that there was nothing in the democratic party or its candidate that they should be yearned after while the republican party embodied all that was progressive in its policy and worthy of the support of the American citizen. Judge Graham more particularly discussed the issues of the present campaign, giving a lucid exposition of the protective policy and its advantages to the American people, and very forcibly and eloquently brought out the supreme issue of the hour, the protected ballot, and showed that the mission of the republican party was not completed until the "shot gun" policy of the south was overthrown. The Judge's characterization of the indefinable position of the democratic party and its nefarious habit of defamation was withering in the extreme without being indictive.

Every Flavor that Dr. Price has made has the peculiar taste of the fruit from which it is obtained, and are so true to nature that their use leaves nothing to be desired. We have yet to hear of the cook who has used Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts, that was not delighted with them. For natural flavors, none compare with Dr. Price's.

GREAT POLITICAL RALLIES.

Tammany Ratifies.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Tammany hall ratified the nomination of Cleveland and Hendricks and its own county and city nominations Tuesday night with a monster parade and mass meetings in the wigwam, Union square and at Irving place. There were six stands outside, from which speakers addressed the vast multitude. Three of the stands were located in Union square, one at Irving place and Fourteenth street, and two outside Tammany hall. There were between forty and fifty different uniformed clubs and companies, numbering between 25,000 and 30,000 men, in the procession. It was estimated that the spectators in Union square and Fourteenth street numbered as many, or more. Each club and company was headed by a band of music, and what with thousands of lanterns and torches, and a continual display of fireworks, the scene was one long to be remembered. The principal meeting was in Tammany hall, which was packed to overflowing. Ex-Judge Tappan called the meeting to order. Mayor Edson was elected chairman and in a brief speech said that Tammany hall would in good faith support and earnestly work for Cleveland and Hendricks. [Cheers.] Senator Bayard, who was received with great cheering, was then introduced and delivered the principal address. Resolutions were adopted indorsing and ratifying the nomination of Cleveland and Hendricks, favoring protection of American industry and no more revenue than is required to pay the actual expenses of the government.

Addresses were also made by Lieutenant Governor Carroll, of Maryland, Governor Abbett, of New Jersey, and John Kelly. The speakers who entertained the crowd in the street numbered over fifty.

Blaine's Indianapolis Reception.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 22.—Tuesday—Blaine day—was the occasion of the greatest political demonstration ever witnessed in the Hoosier capital. Scores of excursion trains emptied into the city not less than 50,000 people. Of these, probably 5,000 were from Ohio, Springfield sending its plug-hat brigade of 3,000, and Dayton, Xenia and Bellefontaine being represented by large delegations. Blaine's train did not reach the city until 4:30. All along the line there had been great gatherings at every stopping place. Blaine was met between Noble and Washington and escorted to Military park, where he addressed the assembled crowd of fully 100,000 people. Blaine was introduced by Governor Porter, and made one of the longest speeches he has delivered, dealing principally with the tariff question, and arging the necessity of a protective tariff to develop the resources of the continent.

The great torchlight procession for the night in honor of Blaine was interfered with by a rain-storm. But 7,000 men participated, and 40,000 filled the streets in spite of the rain. Mr. Blaine is the guest of Senator Harrison. He was met at supper by Governor Porter, Col. R. W. Thompson, Congressman McKinley, and several others. He next visits Evansville.

It is estimated that 40,000 men marched in the ranks of the procession which escorted Mr. Blaine to Military park.

Gen. Logan in Iowa.

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa, Oct. 22.—Gen. Logan arrived here Tuesday afternoon. At Cedar Rapids he addressed a very large meeting, and was cheered to the echo. He was welcomed to the town by the ringing of bells, blowing of whistles, and shouts of 6,000 to 8,000 people who had assembled to meet him, and passed to the speaking-stand through long lines of uniformed men who kept up one continuous cheer. Little girls in white sprinkled flowers in his way at the stand, and one little colored girl presented him with a bouquet, which he received with evident pleasure. The weather was very inclement, but the enthusiasm would not be put down.

At this place there was also an immense throng and great cheering. The general had great difficulty in making his way to the stand, so dense was the crowd. At Montecello, Grinnell and Fairfield the receptions were similarly enthusiastic.

Closing Up the Campaign Work.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 22.—The Democratic congressional committee have practically closed their part of the campaign work. Their last wagon load of documents was sent off Monday night. During the campaign they have sent out about 2,000,000 documents, all but Mr. Post's speech upon frauds in the departments being parts of The Congressional Record. But few tariff speeches were sent out.

The Republican campaign committee here have closed up the documentary part of their work also, except that state associations still come to their rooms to send off some documents they have on hand, and this will probably not last more than a day longer.

Thurman at Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Brooklyn rink was filled to overflowing Tuesday night by an audience composed as largely of women as men, when Hon. Allan G. Thurman, the guest of the Young Men's Democratic club, stepped upon the platform. The women applauded the speaker as wildly as the men. Overflow meetings were organized outside. Mr. Thurman said he was tired of the talk about destruction to the business interests of the country in the event of the election of the Democratic candidate, and that is was Republican dirt thrown into Democratic eyes.

New York City Politics.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The county convention of the Irving hall Democracy Tuesday night nominated for mayor William R. Grace; for comptroller, Edward V. Loew; for district attorney, Randolph B. Martine; for common pleas judges, Henry Wilder Allen, Edward Patterson and Alfred Wagstaff. The German American Independent convention met and indorsed the nominees of the county Democracy. The county Democrats in the Ninth district indorsed Tammany's nomination of Joseph Pulitzer for congress.

Carter Harrison at Lincoln, Ill.

LINCOLN, Ills., Oct. 22.—Three weeks ago the Democrats had to postpone their grand rally on account of rain. The time was fixed for Tuesday, and, unfortunately, it rained harder than it did the time before. Carter Harrison was here and made two speeches—one at the court house and the other at Gillett's hall. Fully 5,000 people were here. Delegations came from all points within thirty miles, and in spite of the rain a procession was had, and, considering all things, the rally was a success.

Democratic Barbecue at DeKalb, Ills.

DEKALB, Ills., Oct. 22.—About 15,000 assembled at this place Tuesday for a barbecue. Notwithstanding the drizzling rain, Governor Palmer, E. W. Blaisdell, John H. Oberly, and others, addressed the gathering. There was an abundance of provisions. Eighty railway coaches were required to take the crowd to their homes.

Not that Bank.

CAIRO, Oct. 22.—The bank now in course of liquidation here is that of Sinadino Ralli, not that of the Ralli brothers, of wide reputation.

Milton.

—The republican meeting at college chapel on the evening of the 15th inst. was a success although the attendance was not as large as it should have been. The speaker, Hon. Frank L. Gilson, of Milwaukee, was escorted to the chapel by the College Blaine and Logan club and was introduced to the audience by P. M. Green, president of the Blaine and Logan club. He spoke for nearly two hours and was frequently interrupted by hearty applause. He made a good argument for the continuance in power of the republican party and showed the hollowness of the claim of the democratic party that it is the reform party. He received a hearty vote of thanks at the close of his speech. A business meeting of the club was held at the conclusion of Mr. Gilson's remarks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wheeler, of New York, have been visiting Milton relatives and friends this week.

—Rev. E. M. Dunn returned from his trip to West Virginia, New York and New Jersey. He is of the opinion that Blaine will carry the two latter states.

—Mrs. W. H. Coon and her children returned to their Nebraska home last Friday.

—Prof. L. Heritage, of Madison, was in town for a few hours last Thursday. Sorry that he could not stay long enough to see more of his friends.

—Milton went down en masse to the grand rally last Thursday and all say it was the best display ever seen in the county.

—The merchants in this village have agreed to close their places of business hereafter at eight o'clock p. m. until April.

—Enoch F. Bond, proprietor of the Alexander Mitchel House, Mitchell, Dakota, and wife arrived in town Saturday and are the guests of Miss Jennie Bond.

—Milton will send a large delegation over to Edgerton when the republicans have their rally on the evening of November 1st.

For seven years Allen's Brain Food has stood the strongest tests as to its merits in curing nervousness, nervous debility and restoring lost powers to the weakened generative system, and, in no instance, has it ever failed: test it $1; 6 for $5.—At druggists, or by mail from J. Cuticura

A Positive Cure for Every Form of Skin and Blood Diseases, from Pimples to Scrofula.

I have had the Psoriasis for nine months. About five months ago I applied to a doctor near Boston, who helped me, but unfortunately I had to leave, but continued taking his medicine for nearly three months, but the disease did not leave. I saw Mr. Carpenter's letter in the Philadelphia Record, and his case perfectly described mine. I tried the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using two bottles RESOLVENT, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP in proportion, and call myself completely cured. L. F. BARNARD.

EXCRU

CIATING is expressive of the most intense pain, and yet sufferers from Rheumatism and Neuralgia say it does not express the agony they endure.

CAN THE PAIN BE RELIEVED?

Mr. Benj. F. Congdon, Randolph, N. Y., writes:

"Mrs. Mary J. Wilcox is using ATHLOPHOROS now continually for long-standing Inflammatory Rheumatism, probably her case is incurable, but nothing else gives her such relief from the excruciating pains as ATHLOPHOROS."

No medicine has ever been produced that has been so successful as and testimonials regarding its efficacy come unsolicited from all parts of the country.

Mr. R. B. Watson, 181, 15th St. Detroit, Mich. says:

"About March 1st, my wife was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism, upper and lower limbs swollen badly, suffered intense pain, and part of the time confined to room to bed. Tried various remedies with no relief; was induced to try ATHLOPHOROS May 1st. After taking six doses, pain was entirely gone and swelling nearly all reduced. The medicine has worked like a charm, and I feel assured that another bottle or two will give positive cure."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed.

—The boards of registry for the first, second, third and fourth wards will close their labors at eight o'clock this evening. If you have not registered see to it before that time.

—The next social party of the Union club will be given in Apollo hall on Friday evening of this week. Parties holding invitations to the previous parties are invited to attend the above.

—Mr. Samuel Bassett, of Boston, who has been visiting in the city for the past three months, started home yesterday. He was accompanied as far as Chicago by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Echlin, of the first ward.

—The hog market in Janesville to-day has been quite lively, and a large number of hogs have been brought in, in fact more than on any one day for a long time. They have all been taken to the stock yards, for shipment to Chicago.

—The attendance at the re-opening of the roller skating rink in Young America hall last night was very small, so small that the attempt to open the rink last evening was abandoned. It is a little too early, and people are too deeply engaged in the political contest to give much time to such amusements.

—If you want a pair of neat fitting sewed boots or shoes made to order, call on Mr. Wm. F. Beckett of the corn exchange block. Mr. Beckett makes a specialty of invisible rubber patching and also all kinds of repairing. His long experience in the business has secured for him the well earned reputation of being a first class workman.

—The public dancing party given by W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., in the Rifles armory, last evening, was one of the most pleasant of the season. The unfavorable weather kept many from attending, but the party, although small in number, was such that those who participated enjoyed every fleeting moment during the evening, and every one pronounced it a pleasant success.

—Messrs. Ford & Crossett, of the City Mills, have manufactured and shipped this fall, two thousand five hundred barrels of their celebrated buckwheat flour, all manufactured by the new patent roller process. This flour is shipped to all parts of the country, some as far west as Denver. This firm make a specialty of buckwheat flour, and are doing a good business.

—The Chicago, Milwaukee & Saint Paul railway company will sell excursion tickets to Milwaukee for $2.85 and Chicago for $2.95, on Saturday morning good to return from either city on the following Monday. This will give the Janesville people an opportunity to attend the Blaine demonstration in either Chicago or Milwaukee at half fare rates.

—The next meeting of the Rock county Sunday School Association will be held at Emerald Grove, commencing at 3 p. m., Tuesday, Nov. 5th, continuing through the 6th. It is hoped a delegation from every school in the county will be present. A report from town committees will be made showing what is being done and what land is to be possessed. These meetings are always full of interest and the good people of Emerald Grove are anxious to meet all old friends of and workers in the Sabbath schools.

—The Evansville Enterprise: "Messrs. Rogers & Hutchinson, of Janesville, and two other gentlemen have been engaged in painting Mr. W. S. Smith's residence for a couple of weeks and now the work has progressed so far that it can easily be seen that it is going to be as handsome a house as there is in the place when completed. The outside has been painted a beautiful light green color trimmed with dark green, old gold and a strip of red which contrasts nicely. On the interior the ceilings on the lower floor have been tinted and decorated with pleasant colors and elegant designs and the walls hung with rich paper to correspond. House decoration is an art that can only be learned by long experience and constant study of colors, but it is very evident that Messrs. Rogers & Hutchinson have been long at the business."

A Worthy Nomination.

The second school superintendent district convention, met in this city this afternoon, and unanimously renominated Mr. William Jones, of Clinton. If any official in this county thoroughly earned the confidence and good will of the people that man is Mr. Jones. He has held the office of superintendent of schools of the second district for a number of years. He has filled the position admirably well. He took to the office ability, industry, and all the accomplishments of a gentleman, and has never ceased to labor for the advancement of the schools under his charge. He has dignified the office and the office has been honored by his services.

Grand Rally at Edgerton.

There will be a grand republican rally at Edgerton, on Saturday, November 1st, afternoon and evening. The meeting will be addressed by Governor Rusk, General Fairchild, Colonel Parsons and Ogden H. Fethers. There will be a grand torch light procession in the evening, participated in by marching clubs from adjacent towns. Every body is requested to turn out.

The Weather

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 37 degrees above zero. Cloudy with southwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 48 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with southwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 31 and 50 degrees above zero.

Enterprise.

Hanchett & Sheldon, are out with a catalogue of their large stock, consisting of shelf and builders hardware, mechanics tools, stores, stamped, Japaned and piece tin ware, wagon makers and blacksmith material, etc. It contains 256 pages with over 1,000 cuts, giving sizes and illustrating the most important articles. It will be found of great convenience to all buyers of hardware, be they farmers, mechanics or merchants, and no doubt will be appreciated by all who are so fortunate as to obtain a copy. Messrs. Hanchett & Sheldon have spent much time and money on this work, and while it is intended for gratuitous distribution, the limited number will necessitate an early call from those who desire the book. It certainly reflects great credit on this firm who from a small beginning 10 years ago, now carry the largest stock, occupy the largest store, and have the largest trade of any hardware establishment in southern Wisconsin. Their wholesale trade has grown beyond their expectations, but with their facilities of buying in large lots direct from the manufacturers, paying prompt, and with all being square and honorable men to deal with. We speak for them increased patronage and success.

When this Fierce Election Fight is Over.

When the Presidential contest, now waged so fiercely ends on Nov. 4th, the public mind, now excited, will take a rest, content that the country is saved—no matter who shall win—but then will be an opportunity to win a fortune of $75,000 by investing in the 17th grand monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, at New Orleans, on Tuesday, Nov. 11th. The particulars can be had of M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

"The Brave Days of Old."

The Gazette has received from Mr. J. H. Whitney, of Baraboo, Wisconsin, a very handsome volume of war ballads entitled "The Brave Days of Old." There are seventeen poems in the volume, many of them descriptive, and all of them excellent. A limited edition only of the ballads has been issued, and is designed especially for the comrades of this department of the grand army of the republic, with whom the author has been associated with as assistant adjutant general for nearly two years. The poems are certainly of high merit and have been approved by good critics. They are especially adapted to post meetings and camp fires, and will make such gatherings more interesting. Mr. Whitney has done the grand army an excellent service by the publication of these poems, and we trust they will have a deservedly large sale. Any one can procure a copy of the poems by addressing the author at Baraboo, and enclosing one dollar.

ABANDONED.

The Republican Plug Hat Brigade Abandon the Rockford Trip.

A meeting of the plug hat brigade was held at the Blaine and Logan club rooms last evening, Mr. Charles Atwood was elected chairman, and Thomas Mahon secretary.

Owing to unfavorable weather, the brigade voted to abandon the Rockford trip, which was to take place this evening.

The brigade voted to attend the grand rally at Stoughton on Saturday evening. The fare for the round trip being eighty-five cents.

The officers were instructed to canvass the city and secure as large a number as possible to attend this rally.

The meeting then adjourned to meet on Thursday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

A republican convention, composed of delegates from the towns comprising the second school superintendent district, met in the court house at two o'clock this afternoon, and was called to order by Mr. B. H. Smith, of La Prairie, who read the call.

On motion of Mr. W. A. Mayhew, of Clinton, Hon. James Menzies, of Harmony, was elected chairman, and B. H. Smith, of La Prairie, secretary.

A committee on credentials was appointed, consisting of Mr. C. G. Antisdel, of Rock, W. A. Mayhew, of Clinton, and Wm. Duthy, of Bradford.

After examining the credentials the committee made the following report:

Hyzer at Lima.

To the Editor.

LIMA CENTER, Oct. 21, 1884.

The object of this article is merely to call attention to the position taken by one of the speakers at the democratic rally at this place on Saturday evening last. Mr. Hyzer prefaced his remarks by saying that he had never done an act in his life so reluctantly as he arose before that audience to speak. Now why this very uncommon reluctance? If he thinks he is doing right in opposing the republican candidate for the presidency why in the name of common sense is the task so irksome, and if he is not fully persuaded that he is doing right then why is he doing it at all? He professed to have fully and very carefully investigated both sides of the case and surely ought not to have been in doubt as to which side he thought was right. It really seems one horn or the other of this dilema was bound to gore him.

—Miss Maggie Paterson of Janesville, has been spending a few days in our village visiting friends.

—E. D. Dawson, of Rockford, Ill., spent Sunday with Mr. Geo. Sears' family.

—J. D. King, of Janesville, postoffice inspector, paid an official visit to our village a few days ago. He found like the dutch justice: "No cause for such actions" and went home.

—There will be a Japanese fair and supper in the Congregational church, Friday evening, Oct. 31st. The costumes for the occasion will be furnished by Rev. W. W. Curtis. Let every one turn out and encourage the missionary band in their noble work.

—The flag which was raised on the hickory pole with "Democratic Headquarters" printed on it has failed to appear since the Ohio election

—J. H. Batch, Esq, was in attendance at the political meeting Monday evening having come down with his friend Whitehead as a kind of a sympathizer—they both being grass-widdows at present.

—Mrs. Frankie Bell and daughter, of Maning, Iowa, are visiting with her mother, Mrs. Dockstader.

—It would be useless to try to give expression to the feelings of the hundreds who attended the great mass meeting at Janesville last Thursday. Only one opinion seems to prevail and that is "that it was the biggest affair I ever saw."

—A large audience assembled in the Congregational church last Monday evening to listen to a political address by J. M. Whitehead, Esq., of Janesville. Mr. Whitehead is a very earnest speaker, and in his address deals only with solid facts, leaving out all political slang and slander, which is so much used at the present time. His address was mainly to the young men, of which there were a large number present.

—A meeting of the literary society will be held next Tuesday evening, at which time the following questions will be debated upon: "Resolved, that the Arctic expeditions are not practicable." It is rather of a cold subject but we expect those who have the debate in charge will make it so warm that the very ice will melt away.

—Mr. Church, of Clinton, was in town Sunday evening with his lady, but did not have his prayerful team this time. His friends concluded not to rope him in this time.

—Constable Drake was in town Tuesday reading invitations to witnesses to appear in Janesville Wednesday, on the suit of state vs. Charles Williams, in the Stark-Smith horse case.

—John Knipshield has purchased a new steamer to run his thrashing machine with. He has got tired of horse power thrashing.

—W. H. Stark has commenced to strip some of his tobacco. It is as fine and nice as any we ever saw. Mr. Stark says it is the best he ever raised and he has been in the business a number of years.

OBITUARY.

MRS. CARRIE DINGMAN CLELAND.

Mrs. Carrie Dingman Cleland, wife of William Cleland, of Brodhead, and daughter of Winard Dingman, of the town of Center, died at the residence of her father on the morning of October 18, after an illness of many months. The funeral was attended at the house on Monday, the 20th instant, by a large concourse of friends, and her remains were conveyed to the Grove Church cemetery. The pastor of the Grove church conducted the services, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Wrigly, pastor of the Congregational church at Brodhead, of which the deceased was a member at the time of her death. She loved life and desired to remain here to share earth's joys and cares with her friends. Yet she bowed submissively to the will of heaven, and met her fate with a brave, true heart, and left behind her the testimony of an humble, pious spirit. She was 31 years old on the 13th day of September last, and had confessedly belonged to Christ for nineteen years. Her parents, brother, husband and little daughter, with a large circle of friends and acquaintances, lament her loss. Her friends especially desire to thank all those kind hearts who rendered such patient and valuable assistance during her long illness, and at her decease. F.

From Colonel C. H. Mackey, 32d Iowa Infantry: "I have derived more benefit from Ely's Cream Balm than anything else I have ever tried. I have now been using it for three months and am experiencing no trouble from Catarrh whatever. I have been a sufferer for twenty years." C. H. Mackey, Sigourney, Iowa, Feb. 22, 1882.

The Prince of Wales.

[Eli Perkins' Letter.]

The common people in England all love the prince of Wales. There is no monarch in Europe so beloved as the prince. The reason is this: the prince is very democratic. He doesn't act like a king, he rides in a simple carriage, he rides everywhere, he even dines at the Savage club with a lot of Bohemians. He is now visiting around the country. He is now about 45 years old, his wild oats are about all sown, and, as he settles down, the people all vote him a jolly good fellow. He will succeed to his mother without any opposition. Everybody wants him to slide into the place, and everybody will be glad when he is there.

A Unique Epitaph.

[Texas Siftings.]

The following is a unique epitaph upon a tombstone, at South Dennis cemetery, Cape Cod, Mass.:

"Of seven sons the Lord his father gave,
He was the fourth who found a watery grave,
When fifteen days had passed, the circumstance occurred,
His body was found and decently interred."

Insanity is on the increase. Statistics show this. Many cases are brought on by overwork, anxiety, excitement, mental trouble and nervous prostration; it is also inherited. Invariably sleeplessness and constipation manifest themselves before one becomes insane. Constipation induces dyspepsia, jaundice, bad breath, piles, pipples, low spirits, headache, etc. Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic relieves constipation, thereby curing these diseases. Price, 50 cents.
